

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Bald Knob.

One of Mr. W. R. Clark's sons is very ill with fever.

Mrs. Henry Allison, while walking in her yard last Saturday, fell and broke her arm.

Mr. D. P. Bentley is charmed with his new boarding place, as he says he is in paradise now.

A young man in this locality has been paying his addresses to a married lady under the impression that she was single.

Our public school, under the care of Mr. D. P. Bentley, has an average attendance of seventy, and is in a prosperous condition.

The young ladies say that most of the young men in this locality have turned out their monstaches, but they will never come back. Try the effect of soap suds, boys.

Married.—At the residence of the bride's father, on Thursday, November 21, Mr. Thomas Lee and Miss Sidonia Snook. We tender them our heartiest congratulations. X. Y. Z.

ELMVILLE, KY., Oct. 24, 1882.

Editor Roundabout:

DEAR SIR: In your issue of the 21st inst. I see, under the head of Elmville, an article signed J. K. H. referring to the Poe School house. I take the present opportunity of informing you that it is all a mistake. The school is in a prosperous condition and has been visited by the Commissioner, who delivered the school a very interesting speech. Mr. J. K. H. says there has not been a school taught in the district for eight years. During that time some of the most distinguished teachers the county affords have taught here, among them Rev. J. B. Ingles, J. P. Hutchison, and others having a first-class collegiate education.

There has never been a school taught in the district since the present Commissioner has been in office but he has attended the school and delivered magnificent lectures. The trustees, ex-trustees and the community generally say the present Commissioner has been more punctual than any of his predecessors.

I suppose Mr. J. K. H. has thrown a heavy load from his shoulders by obtaining a divorce, which announces him a candidate for matrimony again. It only took one vote to elect him before, and we feel assured that he will not get that many again.

I would advise J. K. H., D. D., to quit shooting at random, as in all probability he will inflict a mortal wound on some of his best friends. E. H. W.

Stoney Creek.

The comet is a boomer.

Tobacco is most all housed in this part of the county.

Born.—To the wife of Curran Moore, a fine son—weight 8½ lbs.

Mr. Albert Webb has gone to Owen county to remain a few days.

Your correspondent made a flying visit to Henry county Saturday and Sunday.

M. D. O'Nan has gone to Henry county to spend several days with friends and relatives.

Mr. J. S. Moore was in Woodford county a few days the past week looking for a situation.

Sep. Ford, of Henry county, near Lockport, was the guest of N. Moore Saturday and Sunday.

Bro. Smith, who has been conducting a series of meetings here, closed Tuesday night with four additions.

Mr. John Smith, jr., and Luther Phillips were in Scott county the past week for a few days looking out for a situation.

Mrs. Celia Smith, who is ninety years of age, is quite sick at Mr. Joseph Roberts', though some better at this writing.

Mrs. Louisa Moore, nee Pence and Mrs. Jane Polsgrove paid a flying visit to relatives in Belle Point Friday of last week.

Miss Annie Graves, one of the charming young belles of South Frankfort, and Mr. Poley Smith, of Belle Point, were at our singing Sunday.

Mr. James Moore and wife, of Belle Point, were the guests of Mr. F. M. Smith and family Sunday and Monday. We are glad to see Mr. Moore able to travel about again.

Our singing school, conducted by Prof. J. C. Wiley, expired Sunday. Miss Maggie Moore, a little daughter of Mrs. Louisa Moore, won the prize by making the best progress out of forty scholars.

We are glad to see that X. Y. Z. has come to the front from Bald Knob. We look that way and smile and say come again Mr. X. Y. Z. Please tell us when that wedding will do to pull.

Our worthy and highly esteemed School Commissioner, T. B. Ford, visited our school Tuesday of last week, and his remarks to the children were very appropriate indeed. Very sorry to learn that he will not be our next School Commissioner, for he is the right man in the right place.

On Wednesday morning of last week the people of this vicinity were alarmed by a whistle from an engine that appeared to be in the pike, near Henry Branner's. So they investigated the matter, and to their joy, found that J. J. Smith and Henry Moore had completed their grist mill and were ready for business. Bring your corn in and have it ground. The gentlemen will do you right and give you good meal. If you don't bring corn enough to pay the toll they will only keep the sack. Come early to avoid the rush. Remember that they grind on Friday in each week.

TENOR.

Elmville.

Mr. Willis Wiley spent several days last week with friends in Louisville.

Mr. J. N. Bridges sold a few days ago, to John Rudder, one dry cow for $40.

Dr. Peter Satterwhite has located in our village and will practice his profession.

Mr. L. A. Hedrick has returned home sooner than expected, owing to feeble health.

Miss Emma Bratton, of Peak's Mill, is attending Miss Lizzie Parker's school at this place.

Mr. Willie Watson, of Bethany, says the Roundabout is the best paper for the price in the United States.

Mr. Robert Wiley left for Bloomington, Indiana, on the 25th ult., where he will visit friends and relatives until Spring.

Mr. Willie Wigginton is confined to his room from the effects of a love stroke received while at Mt. Vernon Church Sunday evening.

Moses Katie West and Miss Huele, of Peak's Mill neighborhood, were the guests of Miss Belle Hall, in this place, several days last week.

Mrs. James W. Bridges has been very sick at her home, two miles west of this place, for several days, but is better at present writing.

Mr. Spencer O. Wigginton has resigned his clerkship in the drug store of his brother and has gone into business in the State of Sweet Owen.

Prof. J. C. Bridges will begin in a few days the erection of a very fine dwelling on his beautiful homestead, two miles southwest of this place.

Mr. Odd Hedrick sold, on the 19th inst. to Legrand Wiley, of Owen, one iron grey mare, six years old, for one hundred and twenty dollars.

The witnesses that attended court from this place all wandered off from the court house and were attached. They will do better next time.

Prof. John T. Spencer, who resides in a half mile of this place, will give a social next week in honor of some young guests who start West shortly.

Our village is doing the largest fall trade ever done here. It requires four clerks in W. S. McCord's dry goods house all the time to wait upon his customers.

Mr. J. T. Wigginton has been awarded the contract for building Mr. Parker's new dwelling, on the Parker property adjoining town, at five hundred dollars.

Mr. James W. Bridges is doing the best business we ever have known any agent to do in so short a time. Mr. B. will make his mark, as he is a wide-awake business man.

Mr. George Brink had quite a joke played upon him Saturday night by some young ladies, but we will not tell it as he was so badly sold. Put on your specs next time, George.

Messrs. Joseph Menton and John Loss-Bridges took in the Owen court on the fourth Monday. They claim Owen is equal to any market in the State to sell all kinds of stock.

Mr. George Brink, some weeks ago, made all necessary arrangements for going West but when he came to the farewell taking his heart failed him, and he will make our village his future home.

Oakland Christian Church has called Elder Hiram Ford to preach for them next year. It is a good selection as Bro. Ford is one of the best exponents of the scriptures in this part of the State.

The singing given in honor of Miss Winters at Mr. John Helm's, on Thursday night, was a perfect success, and all that were so fortunate as to be present enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

The singing and social given at W. S. McCord's Saturday night is said to have been the grandest affair ever witnessed in this part of the State. The Reynolds Band, of Minorsville, Scott county, furnished the music.

Give Elmville a good Post office and then she will be the boss town in the county. She wants the next Assessor and should have him, as this end of the county has always been left out in the selection of officers and jurors. Fair play is all we want.

Our photographers pulled up stakes and drove down into Owen county last Sunday. Mr. Rollins will go to teaching school while Mr. Glass will go into the agricultural business. We wish the boys success, as they are clever fellows and made many warm friends while here.

That long talked of game of Base Ball came off at our Base Ball ground last Saturday evening between our home nine and the Peak's Mill Club. The boys all played their best, of course, but our nine beat the Peak's Mill boys two scores. It is said that John Ford did the best playing ever done on our grounds, and two of our club did the worst they ever have done, not making a single score. Every little boy in our village has the base ball fever and is practicing with walnuts, rocks, &c.

We have the best school in the State at this place, taking into consideration the many disadvantages surrounding it. The worst thing is the old rickety house. Its a disgrace that children should be compelled to attend school in such a hovel. We had occasion to visit the school on Friday evening of last week and found 47 scholars in attendance. Several of them have gained 80 per cent. since the school began, it only being half out. Miss Lizzie F. Parker is the efficient teacher in charge. We would suggest to this neighborhood that they build a new house as it certainly is very badly needed.
